Target Audience

This is for all professionals working internationally requiring good communication skills in English. The course is primarily skills-based, not a language learning/development skills course, and the minimum entry level of each participant is a B1 (CEF) or Intermediate level in English. Participants will be encouraged to critically assess their performance as communicators, and will be given training for effective communication

Course Summary

Communication in a professional context requires a mix of language knowledge and communication skills. Language knowledge gives you the security that you are using the correct forms; communication skills in English give you the ability to build relationships and accomplish tasks. Taken together these two elements create competence in business and professional communication.

Preparation

Once registered participants on this course programme will receive:

- A pre-course questionnaire which will enable trainers to learn about the participants' teaching backgrounds and to assess their exact needs
- Information about the Europass Mobility Certificate
- Information about Erasmus Plus Agreements

Objectives

- To enhance both the language needed for participants to operate, teach or speak in an international working environment.
- The course is primarily skills-based, not a language learning/development skills course,
- To provide training and practice for effective communication & performance
- To exchange professional knowledge in a multi-cultural context
- To enable participants to a better understanding of English in use and to expand & build on previous knowledge
- To further develop participants' fluency through discussion & role play
- To develop vocabulary in English
- To experience the cultural heritage of Malta with its bilingual linguistic environment

Methodology

- The training course will include both input and ample opportunity for practice and feedback
- An interactive communicative approach is applied, which will provide participants with experiential learning of skills & training
- Effective communication skills will be explored, analysed and discussed, developing the participants' use of their own communication skills in English
- Sessions will take the form of brainstorming, analysis, problem -solving, and role play, both in pair work & group work, further enabling the participants' use of English
- Exchange of participants' professional knowledge will be encouraged through discussion
- The course employs a highly interactive and practical approach. Input sessions involve multimedia.

Follow Up

- The course will end with an evaluation session, where participants will be asked to reflect upon the value of the knowledge gained on the course and its usefulness to them
- A full course report will be prepared for all participants by the trainer and will include all modules covered.
